Most Travelled Boundary

A recent study of tourist travel between Canada and United States revealed the fact that on an average between 5,000 and 6,000 people cross this international border every year, a greater number than crosses
any other international boundary.

Fruit Recipes

Now is the time for the enterprising housewife to try out enticing
fruit recipes, of which the five fruit sauce is an ever welcome example.
Twenty tomatoes are required with 8 apples, 6 pears, 6 peaches, 1 pint pitted plums, 3 red peppers, 5 cup fuls of sugar, 2 sticks of cinnamon, tablespoonful mixed spice, a tablespoonful of salt, and 1 quart of vinegar. Boiled for two hours, this makes seven pint jars of sauce.

Should I marry a man who ties to me? Girl, do you want to be an old maid?

U S Market for Alberta Coal

The recent action of the U S government in deciding to admit Canadian coal without duty, will, it is believed, bring new business to Alberta coal mines, for both domestic and steam coal. The Alberta government trade commissioner has recently been advised of the new arrangement.

Mother—No, Jimmie, for the third time I tell you that you cannot have any more dessert.
Jimmie—All right, but I don't see where dad gets the idea that you're always changing your mind.

If We Only Could—

A Minnesota Editor moralizes thus:

If we could all switch businesses
all the way around for just one week, we'd be a lot more sympathetic of the other fellow's problems and know a lot more than we do at present
about the cause of his shortcomings and of his present failures. Let the banker sell prunes, the grocer pull teeth, the dentist run a garage, the garage man edit the paper, the editor run the bank for just six little work days and we'd all have our eyes wide open to what the others are up against that we would never have the courage to criticize, nor would we be unsympathetic again. Then if the whole caboodle of us were to move on various farms and operate them for another six days per each, we'd all be so wise and understanding that the peace and harmony prevailing would unlike this little old community just about the best place in the world to live. It can't be done, of course, but we could take the thought to ourselves that we don't know anything about the other man's job and concede that for all we know, he is handling it in good shape. —Bassano Mail

Dr. Ross Retires

Dr. John T. Ross, deputy minister of education, after 28 years of service in Alberta, is retiring on pension. This month, it is announced by the Honourable Mr. Ross, provincial minister of education, Dr. Ross' successor has not yet been named.

Joan—I am going to do my bit
dad. I'm getting a dressmaker to teach me how to cut out dresses.
Dad—I don't want you to go so far as that. But I think you might cut out cigarettes and $10 hats.

Details of Cattle Processing Plan

Some of the details under which cattle are to be moved from drought areas in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba are announced this week.
Under the arrangements made half of the cost of moving cattle to these packing plants are to be borne by the federal and provincial governments, the other half being given by the railways which have agreed to a special half rate of the usual scale.

The farmer is to get the entire proceeds of the sale of his cattle, less the processing costs, which the packers have agreed to do at a price of from $2.00 to $2.50 an animal. The farmer, however, will get no down payment on the stock which he turns over, but will be paid from the scale of the processed meat.

The feature of non-payment of a down sum is expected to tend toward a general rush of livestock to the market which would have the effect of a lowering of prices. If it should work out that stock does not move to the packing plants in sufficient volume the governments will then endeavour to arrange for a small down payment under government guarantee.

Plans are under way to have the machinery of moving the cattle commenced as soon as possible, and it is expected that some 20,000 or 25,000

head of stock will be taken care of in this way, with the possibility of the plan being extended.

Markets in many parts of the world are being surveyed for the disposal of the processed meat, which will be made into boneless meat and tank-age, all of which is to be exported.
Japan is looked on as a possible market for the tankage, where it will be used for hog feed.

Miss Agnes MacPhail who has represented South Grey in the house of commons for the last thirteen years, Friday was nominated against U. F.

riding. Her nomination was made at a large convention and no other name came before the delegates.

Isn't It True?

Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a team, then the man to the mule: "Bill, you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man, made in the image of God, et cetera we work, hitched up together, year in and year out. I wonder if you work for me or if I work for you. Verily I think it is a partnership between mule and fool, for sometimes I work as hard as you if not harder. Plowing and cultivating we cover the same ground, but you do it on four legs and I do it on two. I therefore do twice as much as you do.

Soon well be preparing for another crop when the crop is harvested I give one third to the landlord for being so kind as to let us use this small speck of diode universe. One third goes to you, the balance is mine. You consume all your portion with the exception of the cobs while I divide mine with seven children, six hens, two ducks and the henker. If we both need shoes, you get em Bill, you are getting the best of me I ask—is it fair for a mule, the son of a jackass, to swallow a man, a creature of the Lord, out of his substance. Why, you only help to plow and cultivate the ground and I, alone, must cut, shock, and huck the corn, while you look over the fence and bee haw at me.

All fall and most of the winter the whole family lies in order that we make money to buy new harness and pay the interest on the mortgage on you. And what do you care about the mortgage? None at all. You are a mule, I have gone to do the worrying about the mortgage on your tough, ungrateful hide.

About the only time I am better is on election day, for I can vote and you can't. And after election, I realize I was as big a jackass as your father. Verily I am prone to wonder if politics was made for men or Jackasses or to make jackasses of men. And that ain't all, Bill. When you're dead that's supposed to be the end of you. But me? The parson says I am bound for the lower regions forever. That is, Bill, if I don't do just as he says. And most of what he says keeps me from getting any kick out of life. Tell me, Willyum, considering these things how can you keep a straight face and look so dumb and solemn?

THE SCHOOL FAIR

The school fair is again a matter of history and despite some adverse criticism as such there always will be something about the large majority are of the opinion that the School Fair is eminently worth while. The competition, in a fair field with no show, where exhibitors are judged on their merits only, must create a great pride being taken in the work by the individual pupil, and if he fails to win first prize, to accept his disappointment, in a good sportsmanship manner. This is the "acid test". After all it was no less a world personage than Franklin who said it was the striving that is how well not the achieving that proved the man. So the Strathmore District School Fair deserves the support of everyone in the vicinity.

STANDARD

STANDARD SCHOOL FAIR

Disagreeable weather and bad roads failed to dim the enthusiasm of the young exhibitors at the School Fair which was held Tuesday Sept 18th at Standard. Many of them drove for miles through heavy mud with their exhibits, and leading their live stock.

The School Work of which there was an excellent showing, was judged by Inspector Scholes, Frame of Drumheller. Mr. McKenzie of Calgary led the livestock judging and Mrs. Johnson was in charge of the Home Economics.

At 10 o'clock the Women's Institute Spelling Contest was held in the Dush School followed by the public speaking contest, which was very keenly contested. During the afternoon a large crowd of interested parents and spectators gathered to hear the school singing as well as the other remarks.

Mr. Frame congratulated the people of the District on their enterprise and especially stressed the excellence of the School Fair Bulletin and Special prize list. He then presented Gordon Rasmussen with the handsome Royal Bank Medal, as winner of the greatest number of points in Industrial Art.

Mr. Johnson commented on the Home Economics exhibit and presented Maurice Story with a beautiful Silver Caster, which the Robert Simpson Co. had donated to the girl winning the most marks in cooking.

Mr. McKenzie called attention to the live stock entries, and pointed out the importance of proving the bacon type of hog. Refreshments were served by the School Fair Executive and then the Special Prizes were distributed to the fortunate winners. The officers of the Fair: H. W. Larsen, chairman; E. A. Wagner, vice, and F. D. Knowlton, Sec-Treas.

I HAVE FOUND SUCH JOY

I have found such joy in simple things,
A plain clean room, a nut-brown loaf of bread.

A cup of milk, a kettle as it sings,
The shelter of a roof above my head;
And in a leaf faced square upon the floor
Where yellow sunlight glimmers through a door.

I have found such joy in things that fill
My quiet days: a certain's blowing grass,
A growing plant upon a window sill,
A rose fresh-cut and placed within a vase;

A table cleared, a lamp beside a chair
And books I long have loved, beside me there.

Oh, I have found such joy! I wish I might Toll every woman who goes seeking far
For some elusive, feverish delight,
That very close to home the great joys are.

These fundamental things—old as the race,
Yet never, through the ages common place.
—Grace Noll Crowell

NAMAKA

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. Wooster. The meeting was opened with the devotionals period led by Mrs. Hans Thomson and a reading on the work of "Madame Curie" by Mrs. P. E. Waters.

It was decided to send to the University for another travelling library to be here soon as the fall work is over. Committees for the annual fowl supper were appointed. This event will take place the latter part of October. There will be a sale of plain and fancy sewing at the same time in charge of Miss Margaret Thomson. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. E. Waters. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Bremer.

Master Roy Little is progressing well after undergoing an operation for the removal of his adenoids in Strathmore last Thursday.

Edgar Peterson is home again after spending a few weeks at Bow Island.

Local sportsmen have been rather disappointed over the duck and geese hunting this season so far. Partridges have proved fair game but the ducks have been unusually illusive.

STRATHMORE TRADING COMPANY

Miss Marjorie Wooster spent the week end at Perivale Farm also visiting Miss Addie Spurgeon at Blair with her parents on Sunday.

School is back in the full swing of fall work again. Two more pupils have registered in Mr. Little's school making fourteen in all. Miss Thomson's remaining the same at 28. The first five grades are taken in the junior room this year while the senior room embraces grades six to eleven inclusive. There are only two new pupils in the school, Edward Pawkes, a beginner, and Vernon Hansen, former of Elwood school, who is taking grade X work. Miss Thompson's room made a very good showing in the School Fair, her pupils winning practically all classes attempted. It is to be hoped sufficient encouragement has been gained to induce the higher grades to complete another year.

It was with deep regret that the Namaka people learned of the loss by the home of David Herbert on Tuesday afternoon. The kitchen pipes had come apart and though Mrs. Herb attempted to put them together she was unable to handle them, they were so hot and sparks and coils fell and ignited the house. Mr. Herbert was in Calgary that day, and Mrs. Herbert was alone with the small children. So great a gale was blowing she was only able to escape with the children and could save nothing.

HERVEY NOTES

Duck shooting made quite a stir around here even at the late hour of 12 o'clock. It had an awakening sensation in the valley.

Sunday last Mrs. Julius Schober went out driving with a young man, but two flat tires and a walk home through the mud would cause any husband to receive her with open arms.

Mr. Baird, the piano tuner was to the school and two homes as well. Looks like a boom on music.

Our school is progressing orderly. All the children being enrolled except for one overgrown shik who is waiting for the spirit to move him. His ambition dropped below zero.

We hear of a young lady being in a certain home for some time. What does this mean John?

Mrs. Chamberlain and daughter were visitors to the old homestead of late.

Some friends of the Knapp family from Calgary were visitors at their home last Sunday.

—O—

ROCKYFORD

Threshing has been held up this past week owing to the recent rain and snow. Sixty per cent of the crop is threshed. Two weeks of good weather is needed to finish the work.

Last week was a week of parties.

On Tuesday evening a surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Pigin by the young people. The evening was spent in dancing. On Friday evening Mrs. Pigin's mother party was held on Friday evening when Lucy celebrated her sixteenth birthday. The young people spent an enjoyable time dancing.

On Thursday afternoon the Ladies Aid met in the Church Parlor. Many of the members were busy quilting. It was decided to have their annual Turkey Supper which is to be on Mon Oct 29. Mrs. Barker was appointed to have charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Bradwell will convene the supper and Mrs. R. L. Stone had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Black and family of Glenora during the week end.

Many of the men were out duck shooting on Saturday afternoon. They reported the ducks and Hungarian partridges were plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bradwell had as their guests at the week end, Mrs. Hulme and Mrs. Mitchell from Calgary.

—O—

TUDOR

The president and members of the Tudor Dramatic Society are looking forward for big times as they intend starting rehearsals soon. The Rockford chautauque has asked the Tudor Dramatic to furnish the entertainment for one night which they are very capable of doing. We are sure after the splendid play they put on a year ago at Rockyford. Just like Hollywood. Hurrah girls, there's a new show opening.

Mrs. Haley who has been in Calgary for the last two weeks under the Doctor's care is home again enjoying better health.

There are a lot of stories floating around about the good show music when we are out shooting ducks, but that is not new, that is just natural.

As soon as harvest is finished and work on the farms is caught up, the directors of the Tudor Hill plan a good day at the hall when they would like as many as can spare a day to help with some work that needs to be done before winter. The date will be set later.

The Tudor U F W A are planning a series of bridge and what parties to be held during the winter. They will have a list of the dates and all particulars arranged soon.

LONDON BRIDGE IS FALLING DOWN WITH CITY AIDING ITS DEMOLITION

The pulling down has begun of Waterloo bridge, a crumbling masterpiece in grey stone which for a century has spanned the dark waters of the river Thames in the centre of London.

Eleven years ago this bridge began to collapse until recently utilitarians have disputed with lovers of the beautiful over its fast sinking pliers. The city fathers have been unable to decide whether to restore gracefully but narrow arches or to take the structure down altogether and build something more suited to the modern requirements of London's road and river-traffic.

The port of London authorities said the present structure interfered with river steamers and barges. But drivers used plain words about an expensive roadway. But ingenious arguments were also found to show that a bottleneck of one of the main lines of traffic reduced instead of increased overcrowding traffic elsewhere. Reconditioning plans were in the ascendancy until last March when a Labor Administration succeeded a Conservative one in control of London Municipal affairs.

The newcomers have lost no time in striking out for themselves. Their leader, Mr. Herbert Morrison, has taken a firm stand in maintaining that London possesses no good architect for bridge building today as any it has produced in the past. The London County Council has agreed that the question of cost should not be allowed to stand in the way. Labor ideas have also come in. It has been decided that demolition, which is expected to take 18 months to complete, shall be done by working on a daily wage basis instead of on a contract. There is still talk among the artists of persuading the government to declare what remains of the structure an ancient monument, in which case it would have to be preserved at the expense of the State. But most people think that London will really get a new bridge. Rebuilding is expected to take five years.
